FreePDF Creator Desktop Tool

Fully free tool for creating PDF documents from any Printable Windows Format

Vancouver, Canada – March 26th 2010 – PDFconverter.com, a leading provider of software for PDF creation, editing and conversion, is excited to announce the release of FreePDF Creator, a fully free desktop tool for high-quality PDF creation. The fully free nature of FreePDF Creator means no limits on how much the software can be used to create PDF documents, making it a great alternative to other costly PDF creators on the market.

FreePDF Creator employs a simple to use, user-friendly interface that can print over 300 different Windows file formats to PDF. PDF documents can be created directly from the source program that the document was created in.

FreePDF Creator has been tested and is compatible with current Microsoft Windows operating systems, including Windows 2000, XP, Vista and the newly released Windows 7. FreePDF Creator is also compatible with 64-bit machines.

FreePDF Creator includes several helpful features, such as the ability to create secure PDF files with 128-bit encryption. Free PDF Creator also includes the ability to customize PDF files by adding additional information (title, author, etc..) and by setting the quality of the PDF output depending upon the desired use of the resulting PDF.

The portable document format (PDF) has firmly established itself as the standard for e-document viewing, distribution and storage. FreePDF creator and pdfconverter.com are excited to be able to give users a free way to share their personal and business documents in a precise and extremely cost effective way.
